London to Brighton Cycle Ride

The doitforcharity.com London to Brighton cycle is the only multi-charity daytime ride between two of England's most exciting cities! Covering 54 undulating miles through picturesque towns and villages the ride is suitable for all and perfect for corporate groups. With over 3,000 participants expected for 2013, the London to Brighton cycle has tripled in size in just 2 years!

- 1 day event
- Classic route
- Groups from 2 to 200
- Achievable by all with a bit of training
- Less crowded than other cycle events allowing you to set your own pace ... but no less challenging!

Groups that have previously participated have come away with an enormous sense of achievement and lots of new friends. Whether you have taken part in charity events before or are completely new to this, our London to Brighton cycle offers you and your team the ideal opportunity to team build, raise funds and complete an exciting cycle challenge!

Example Itinerary

This classic cycle ride is definitely one to tick off your 'must do' list. It's a great day out and includes the challenging Ditchling Beacon hill ascent. The following gives you a brief taste of the cycle which is open to all corporate groups both large and small:

Gather in South London

The day begins early on Clapham Common in South London where all cyclists will gather to start their day.

Clapham to Carshalton

It's a gentle steady cycle to the outskirts of the city.

Carshalton to Haywards Heath

As the buildings start to thin out you can start to take in and appreciate the English countryside.

Hayward Heath to Brighton

The last part of the ride takes you over the challenging Ditchling Beacon and down to the finish line for a well earned rest on Brighton's famous seafront!
